

About “Friends”

Friends of the Spring Valley Public Library, Inc. is a non-profit organization of community members who help support the library.

Friends of the Library:

- Fundraise to support the Spring Valley Library's mission and future plans
- Promote the value and missions of the library within the community
- Encourage friends and family to utilize the library programs and services
- Support the library board's strategic plans and policies

Fundraising proceeds are used for:

- Purchasing library “wish list” items not included in the library's budget
- Expanding library collections
 - Books, movies, audiobooks, video-games and more
- Enhancing library projects and equipment
- Supporting library services
 - Reading Programs
 - Youth & Family Events
 - Home Delivery Program
 - Music & Movies in the Park
 - Early Release Day Programs
 - Community Outreach Programs
 - and so much more!

New Members Always Welcome!
